To delivered guest lecturer on:

The main objective to arrange to this guest lecturer is to know importance of Intellectual property Rights for post graduate students.

2. Notes on lecturer

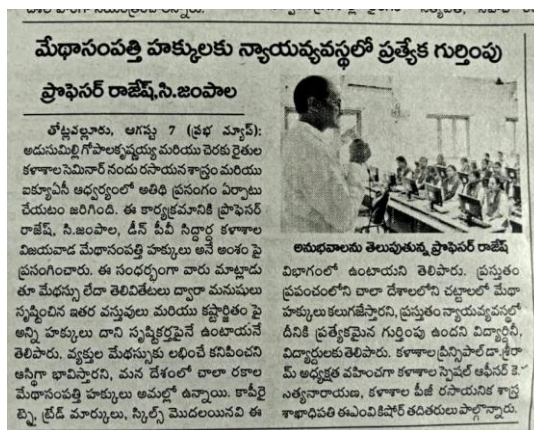

Prof. Rajesh. C. Jampala Dean P.B. Siddhartha College Arts& Science Vijayawada explained in detail Intellectual property (IP) refers to creations of the mind, such as inventions; literary and artistic works; designs; and symbols, names and images used in commerce. IP is protected in law by, for example, patents, copyright and trademarks, which enable people to earn recognition or financial benefit from what they invent or create. By striking the right balance between the interests of innovators and the wider public interest, the IP system aims to foster an environment in which creativity and innovation can flourish.
