

4.2.1 Library is automated with digital facilities using Integrated Library Management System (ILMS), adequate subscriptions to e-resources and journals are made. The library is optimally used by the faculty and students.

A. About Library:

The aim of our Library is to provide quality and information resources and services to students, faculty and administrative staff in support of the educational aim of the college. The Library gets going along with the inspection of the college in 1975 with a moderate collection of 681 books and 15 periodicals.

Our Library building with an aesthetic outlook was constructed in the year 2003 of cost of Rupees Thirteen Lakhs only. Library functions under the supervision of Lecturer in Library Science from 8.30 A.M. to 5.30 P.M. on all working days and 9.00 A.M to 1.00 P.M. on holidays. Books are purchased keeping the requirements of various departments in view as per the guidelines of the advisory committee, headed by the Principal. There is a book bank facility in the library exclusively for SC/ST students under the supervision of teaching faculty.

There are 24177 Books available in the library. The students are permitted to utilize open access system to borrow three books at a time, besides using the reference facility available in the library. A reading room was maintained for the greater benefit of staff students. It is provided with 12 News Papers, 5 Weeklies, 2 Fortnightlies, 12 Monthlies, 1 Bio-Monthly, 7 Quarterlies and Journals of repute covering national and international events of all aspects of the society.

The library is equipped with 4 Computers along with 3 Printers, 1Scanner. The library is partially computerized. Library has one HP – Xerox machine, Students and staff can get copies of articles from Journals and Books against payment.
