Telugu Bhasha Dhinostavam

Programme Name: Telugu Basha Dhinostavam

Date: 29-08-2023.

Organized by: Department of Telugu

Brief Report:

Telugu Language Day commemorates the birth anniversary of a prominent writer, power, and social visionary, Gidugu Venkata Ramamurthy who was born in 1863. On this day, celebrated annually on 29 August, the government of Andhra Pradesh awards funds and offers awards for the advancement of the Telugu language. The Department of Culture, Government of Andhra Pradesh, organizes the events for the day. Telugu is the official language of Telangana and Andhra Pradesh.

Ramamurthy, whose father had died when he was just 12 years old, had studied different languages and was well-versed in linguistic theory. He was instrumental in standardizing the Telugu script and colloquial language. Telugu is one of the major languages of the country. It is recognised as a Scheduled language as well as a classical language. Telugu is also the fourth most spoken Indian language after Hindi, Bengali, and Marathi.

Gurram Jashuva & Bagthsingh Jayanthi

Programme Name: Gurram Jashuva & Bagthsingh Jayanthi

Date: 28-10-2023

Organized by: Department of Telugu

Brief Report:

Gurram Jashuva (Telugu: గుర్రం జాషువా; September 28, 1895 – July 24, 1971) was a Telugu poet. He is legendary figure in the Telugu literary world. With his immense wisdom and through the struggle he faced due to the caste-based discrimination, Jashuva wrote his poetry with a universal approach. He was called the "Poet of the Millennium" for his timeless pieces of poetry and literature.

Jashuva was born to Virayya and Lingamma in Vinukonda, Guntur, Andhra Pradesh, India to a community of leather workers. His father belonged to the Yadav caste and his mother belonged to the Madiga caste. Due to poverty and the intercaste marriage of his parents, his childhood was difficult in a society in which some castes were considered "untouchable." Jashuva and his brother were raised by his parents as Christians. In order to fulfill the requirements of higher education, Jashuva obtained the diploma Ubhaya Bhasha Praveena as a scholar of Telugu and Sanskrit languages later in his life.

Bhagat Singh, (born September 27, 1907, Lyallpur, western Punjab, India [now in Pakistan]—died March 23, 1931, Lahore [now in Pakistan]), revolutionary hero of the Indian independence movement.

Bhagat Singh attended Dayanand Anglo Vedic High School, which was operated by Arya Samaj (a reform sect of modern Hinduism), and then National College, both located in Lahore. He began to protest British rule in India while still a youth and soon fought for national independence. He also worked as a writer and editor in Amritsar for Punjabi- and Urdu-language newspapers espousing Marxist theories. He is credited with popularizing the catchphrase "Inquilab zindabad" ("Long live the revolution").
